FROM TSO MUSIC DIRECTOR
PETER OUNDJIAN

Time and again I'm reminded of the wonderfully rich connection shared by our musicians and the audience during performances. If you regularly attend TSO concerts, you'll understand this sentiment and already know how it feels to be a part of something so inspirational. Newcomers get the pleasure of experiencing this for the first time and we welcome you with enthusiasm. Our 2015/2016 season offers an embarrassment of riches, from soul-searching and dynamic masterpieces to tried-and-true favourites to cutting edge excursions into the unknown—there is something for everyone. This season, we begin our fabulous Decades Project, which spotlights the 20th Century: an eruption of diverse musical ideas from rich late-Romanticism, lush Impressionism, driving jazz, Expressionism, the Avant-Garde, Minimalism, and more. We'll explore together the amazing masterpieces of the orchestral and chamber-music world that forever changed the way we hear music.

The musicians and I invite you to connect with us and be a part of incredible musical experiences.

FROM TSO PRESIDENT & C.E.O.
JEFF MELANSON

I am very pleased to welcome you to the Orchestra's 2015/2016 Season. In my time with the TSO so far, I'm repeatedly thrilled by what the musicians of our Orchestra and our Music Director are capable of each time they step on stage. The response of our dedicated and enthusiastic audiences is moving and demonstrates the TSO's importance to our city as well as music's vital role in each of our lives. This season promises more of the vibrant performances and innovative programming that is our signature.

We look forward to making music with you.

Thu, September 24, 2015 at 7:00pm

Peter Oundjian, conductor

Itzhak Perlman, violin

Dukas: The Sorcerer's Apprentice

Grieg: Suite No. 1 from Peer Gynt

Bruch: Violin Concerto No. 1

In the year when master violinist Itzhak Perlman celebrates his seventieth birthday, he continues the glorious relationship with the TSO that began in 1966. Along with his incomparable performance of the warm-hearted and beloved Bruch concerto, you'll enjoy fanciful and familiar music by Dukas and Grieg.

Exposed: What Makes It Great?® Series

Two Friday Concerts at 7:30pm | One Thursday Concert at 7:30pm

We hear great orchestral masterpieces all the time—in the concert hall, at the movies, on TV, in video games, and on the radio. The first half of each of these concerts takes a look at what makes these pieces so timeless and exceptional through musical excerpts and commentary led by engaging classical music expert Rob Kapilow. Then listen to the full piece with fresh insight after intermission.

What Makes It Great?® Rachmaninoff Piano Concerto 2

Fri, November 13, 2015

Rob Kapilow, conductor & host
Alexander Seredenko, piano

Rachmaninoff: Piano Concerto No. 2

Rob Kapilow and soloist Alexander Seredenko take you inside the lush, romantic world of Rachmaninoff's most popular work for piano and orchestra. Rob will tell you the amazing, can't-believe-it's-true story of how a hypnotist was involved in its creation, and he'll conduct excerpts from the concerto to prepare you to hear it complete, with new ears, in the second half of the concert.

What Makes It Great?® Mozart Symphony 40

Fri, January 15, 2016
